TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S BARRETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

W B DAVENPORT,
General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

THE EVENING POST has a fine city circulation and is, consequently, a first class advertising medium. Merchant take THE POST home to their families to read the news of the day, and is seen by most of the leading people of the city.

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Saturday, December 6th, 1873.

The latest story in relation to Capt. Hall's death is to this effect. On a previous arctic voyage Captain Hall shot a sailor for insubordidation. The affair was investigated, and it was found that he was justified. Now it is said, that some of the friends of the mutineer enlisted in the crew of the Polaris, and by some means not known, compassed the death of Captain Hall.

Hon. A. M. Waddell has introduced in the House of Representatives a bill to restore the franking privilege. Considering that the franking privilege was repealad upon the demands of the country, repeated for years, its restoration would be hasty. We have no objection to members of Congress, and some other officials, enjoying the franking privilege, provided it be not abused; but its repeal was so unanimously and energetically demanded on account of its abuses, that it is best to let it rest where it now is.

On the 10th of the present month occurs the centennial of the great Boston tea party, when more than three hundred chests were empted into the harbor by citizens disguised as Indians. The ladies of Philadelphia design to celebrate the occasion in advance of the July centinnial, by giving the greatest tea drinking party on record. The costumes are expected to those of century age, and we suppose old manners will be attempted for the occasion, but doubt the success of the last.

Oysters.

Professor Seigafritz was appointed about two years ago by the Prussian Parliament to examine into the practicability and advantages of making oyster plantations on the coast line of Germany, and its various bays and estuaries. The learned gentleman in prosecution of his work, as we learn from his report, was indefatigable in studying the oyster, and his habits. Hear him:

"I have followed him [the oyster] to his natural homes, and inquired into his habits in a state of domestication. I have seen him at Ostend and on both sides of the British Channel; have looked into his home on Long Island Sound and Chesapeake Bay; have pursued him to the Bay of Tonsesa in Honduras, and have not neglected him even in distant California. In short, I have done everything but eat him."

The results of his extended view can be summed up in a few words. He finds that there are numerous places in Germany where the oyster can be successfully cultivated to the extent of producing 100,000,000 gallons yearly of the bivalves, but he opposes it on every consideration, and especially with a view to the moral salubrity of the German population.

Where physical effort is greater than the mental, the professor found that eating oysters produced emotional insanity, or as he describes it "that sudden transitory, unheralded, yet terrible phrensies, which, so fatally disturbs the peace of society." The professor finally arrived at this conclusion from the conduct of an oyster woman, which he thus describes:

"When pusuing my inquiries about the markets I was harassed by this sort of thing, and was even assaulted by one hag more opstreperous than usual, who seized a flounder in her horny hand, smote me upon both cheeks with it, and compelled me to beat a hasty retreat, while she pursued me with volleys of fish entrails and graceless epithets, simply because I supposed her oysters to be old, from the fact that she said they were bearded."

A negro child, aged about 7 years, living on the plantation of Mr. Braswell, Edgecombe county, was burned to death last week by its clothing taking fire.

Berry Franklin, a little son of Harriett Phelpes, living near Halifax, fell down stairs last Saturday and broke one arm in two places and dislocated the other.

Gov. Caldwell has appointed Gen. Rufus Barringer, of Charlotte, Solicitor for the 9th Judicial District, vice Hon. W. P. Bynum, promoted to Supreme Court Judge.

The Piedmont Press of 3rd inst. contains an account how one Joseph Bennett, wite a wife living near Statesville, committed bigamy by marrying again near Cove Creek, Watagua county.

Robbing houses seems to be quite as much in vogue in Raleigh just now as in Wilmington.

The yeas and nays were called on the motion to concur which prevailed by a vote of 35 ayes to 7 nays.

Unfinished Business.

The Railroad consolidation bill came up as unfinished business from yesterday.

The amendment of Mr. Norwood, that the road nor any of its franchises shall be sold without due advertisement, was adopted.

The amendment of Mr. Flemming, amended by Mr. Love, requiring the North Carolina Railroad Company to commence work and continue without intermission after the sale of the first bonds of the road until the road is completed to Paint Rock and a point in Cherokee county, near the Georgia or Tennessee line.

Mr. Worth's amendment restricting the issue of bonds to $3,500,000, for the completion of the road from Old Fort to Paint Rock, occasioned considerable discussion between Messrs. Humphrey, Worth, Love, and Morehead of Guilford, but was finally adopted by a unanimous vote. The amendment of Mr. Love was adopted.

Mr. Waring, an amendment to the second section of the bill, requiring in addition to the President's signature to the bonds, &c., to be countersigned by three of the Directors. Adopted.

Under a suspension of the rules the bill was placed upon its third reading.

Mr. Cowles moved the postponement of the further consideration of the bill till to-morrow at 12 o'clock, and the same ordered to be printed. Adopted.

Senate adjourned till to-morrow.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House was called to order at 11½ o'clock, a. m., Mr. Speaker Robinson in the Chair.

By Mr. Bennett, a bill to repeal chapter 68, laws of 1868-'69. Referred.

By Mr. Brown, of Mecklenburg, a bill to provide arms for Military Schools. Referred.

By Mr. Johnston, a bill to amend chapter 90, laws of 1872-'73. Referred.

By Mr. Richardson, a bill in reference to the line between Brunswick and New Hanover counties. Referred.

By Mr. Carson, a bill to amend chapter 70, laws of 1870-'71. Calendar.

By Mr. Trivett, a bill to repeal section 1, chapter 97, Battle's Revisal. Calendar.

Special Order.

The resolution to instruct the Joint Select Committee on Public Printing to let the contract for the same to the lowest responsible bidder, being the special order for this hour (12 m.) it was taken up.

Mr. Gorman opposed the resolution. He said that if the work was put to the lowest bidder the State would get inferior work. In the course of his remarks, he took occasion to compliment, in high terms, the work turned out by the News office during the past year. As a practical printer of over 25 years standing, he had inspected the work with a critical and practiced eye and knew whereof he spoke, etc.

Mr. Turner moved to lay the resolution on the table.

The yeas and nays were called and the motion prevailed—yeas 55, nays 50.

By Mr. Jones, of Orange, a bill to amend the act for amnesty and pardon. Referred.

The resolution condemning the Congressional increased salary and pay act and disapproving the President's action in the matter, and asking our Representatives in Congress to use their influence to have the act repealed, was taken up. The Committee, to whom the several pending resolutions in this matter were referred, reported a substitute embodying the substance of the several resolutions, differing only in phraseology.

The substitute reported by the Committee was next put to a vote and adopted by a vote of yeas 81, nays 17.

The question then recurred upon the passage of the resolution and it was adopted. Adjourned.

Resolutions

Concerning Bridges over Wilmington and Weldon Railroad in the City of Wilmington, N. C,

WHEREAS, THE "CUT" MADE BY the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company in the construction of their Railroad, where the same crosses or intersects the streets in the city greatly impedes the passage of travellers and tends to the manifest injury of the citizens,

AND WHEREAS, The Board of Aldermen are advised that it is the duty of the said Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company to erect and maintain bridges across such cuts where the same cross or intersect the streets in the city, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN, That in their opinion the public necessity demands the erection of bridges at the following points where the said Railroad intersects the following streets to wit: Second Street, Third Street, Fifth Street, Sixth Street, Seventh Street and MacRae Street,

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the width of the bridges over said Railroad cut or excavation on Second Street should be thirty feet wide, on Third Street forty feet wide, on Fifth Street forty feet wide, on Sixth Street Twenty-five feet wide, on Seventh Street, twenty feet wide, on McRae Street twenty feet wide.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the Bridge known as Boney Bridge, where the Railroad crosses Fourth Street, is so narrow as to impede the passage of travellers on the same, and that a bridge of fifty feet wide would be necessary to accommodate the public at that point,

RESOLVED, That the Mayor cause a copy of these Resolutions to be served upon the President or Managing Agent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, and that he direct the officer serving the notice to return a copy thereof, with the manner of service, to the office of the Clerk and Treasurer of the City.

The above Preamble and Resolutions were passed by the Board of Aldermen at their meeting November 21st, 1873.

FOND OF BIVALVES.—Mr. Williams, of New River, brought a cart load of very fine oysters to the city yesterday afternoon, and while he was in one of our saloons receiving pay for the ones he had in the shell, was relieved of some six gallons of opened ones, which he had bucketed up in half gallon buckets.

BEWARE OF PICKPOCKETS.—They are in the city and have already commenced their depredations. Several of them are known to our detectives and if the gentlemen in transit are not extremely cautious they will "be sent up for 5." The detectives saw you in Raleigh. So you had better "git," your boss.

DIRTREAN ROBBERY.—Last night, Mr. C. McAuslan, residing near the corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets, was relieved of three of his Christmas turkeys. Connoisseurs in the art of detecting assert that the same persons who robbed Mr. Sikes' butcher-shop also took the turkeys. These thieves in both robberies were undoubtedly epicures, as they showed a decided preference for the largest, fattest hogs, choicest cuts of beef, and the youngest turkeys.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Cool.

— Gold is 109⅜.

— Cuba news mixed.

— Remember the poor.

— Oysters are plentiful.

— Got cold last night.

— Be ready for the Fair next week.

— Springer sells good wood and coal.

— Read the tax advertisement of the city.

— Go to church to-morrow, and be good.

— There were 126 carts in market the past week.

— Beware of thieves. Keep your doors locked.

— Only two days more to the Bergers and happiness.

— The Raleigh Era went crazy over the Chapmans.

— All the Masonic Societies elect officers this month.

— Advertise for the benefit of the visitors at the Fair.

— Church choirs are now preparing their Christmas music.

— Hope to see many of our brethren of the press next week.

— Foggy and drizzly yesterday, so that lame people suffered.

— Lightwood is the most comfortable thing we have in this country.

— The Gift Concert will be an interesting feature of the Fair. At least the gifts will.

— The fifth annual ball of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association promises to be a grand affair.

— The price of tarleton is the question just now, and oh, who will be the queen of the tournament.

— We hope every merchant of any standing in the city will do something toward making the Fair a success.

— We are very glad that there is no State printing to quarrel over in this city. Who would be a Raleigh editor?

BUTCHER SHOP ROBBED.—The butcher shop on the corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets was entered last night and robbed of eight dressed hogs and about seventy pounds of choice beef.—The police apprehended the thieves, each with a hog on his shoulder, pursued them, and succeeded in capturing one of the light-fingered gentry, who he placed in the hands of a couple of citizens until he could catch the other.—In the meantime the more fortunate of the pair was making good time and succeeded in evading the officer after an interesting race of about twenty minutes. The officer hurried back to the place where he left his prisoner under the tender care and influence of his deputies, and very much to his chagrin, and not to the expected pleasure of marching triumphantly his prisoner, of a half hour before, to the lock up, he was informed that in spite of their wishes and good intentions of keeping their charge he had succeeded in getting away from them. The officer was a fair believer of the old adage of "no use crying over spilt milk," did the next best thing, that is shouldered the hog, and proceeded to the guard house, where he poured his tale of misfortune into sympathetic ears.

FRUSTRATED.—Last evening about 8 o'clock, Mr. John J. O'Brien was attracted by the suspicious manner in which a couple of colored men were acting, and secreted himself behind a tree on the opposite side of the street from them, and soon saw that they were but waiting for a suitable opportunity to rob the millinery establishment of Mrs. Alderman, on the corner of Front and Mulberry streets. Mr. O'Brien watched them until one of them entered the store, ran across the street, arrested and carried him to the guardhouse. From Mr. Alderman we learn that the men were lurking around the store nearly all the evening, but that he had no idea it was their intention of making him the victim of their "tricks;" and at the time of the attempted robbery he was out of the store, having stepped out only a few minutes before. He also says that the man, George Hill, who was arrested by Mr. O'Brien, had entered the store once before he was caught, but his companion, (whom Hill says was his brother,) who was on guard outside, whistled as he saw some one coming up the street; Hill went out, and before entering again he had taken off his shoes. Mrs. Alderman was sitting in the back part of the store at the time Hill entered, and looked around to see who it was. Becoming fearful that the man would do her some bodily harm, she left the store through the back door. At this stage of the proceedings, Mr. O'Brien rushed across the street and arrested Hill, but Hill's brother (?) was either not good steel, or else he was hurrying home to get an umbrella and overshoes to protect the unfortunate George from the weather.

For the Post.

WINTER.

The Autumn days are dying
With their brilliant hues;
And Winter loudly crying,
Comes with frozen dews—
With frozen dews, and icy breath,
Nursing an infant dear,
He gives it, on his bed of death,
To us—a baby year:
A cunning, frozen little thing,
We give it hearty cheer,
Though sighs are backward fluttering
Upon the buried year.

The Autumn days are all quite dead
And buried 'neath the snow,
And Winter chants with hoary head
A requiem soft and low,
For Autumn days, and for the death
He knows will soon be here,
For even now he feels the breath
Of the crying little year.
Tears give we to the dying,
And welcome the new born,
With laughter not with sighing
We greet the New Year's morn.

SCOTT.

THE FAIR.—At the final meeting of the Committee of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association held last night, the several sub committees reported favorably of their various branches. It now depends upon the weather and number of visitors to make our Fair the most brilliant of any held in the State this year. The Live Book Store man who is proverbal for his enterprising turn, has now at the depot awaiting transportation to the Fair Grounds, a number of the finest Pianos ever in this market, and a lot of fine organs and elegant chromos due to-day per steamer from New York, all ordered expressly for the occasion. May he meet with that encouragement that he surely deserves. Messrs. T. W. Brown & Sons have likewise shown a real business tact by ordering handsome goods, and have received to-day the premiums to be awarded by the Association to the lucky man in his speciality. Dr. Carr is busily engaged in trying to make the Gift Concert surpass the most sanguine expectations of its projectors, and will commence on Monday to gather up the numerous donations.

CORRESPONDENCE.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 4th, 1873.

Col. Humphrey's Railroad bill—Mr. Trivett's, of Ashe, bill in relation to the Congressional Salary Grab, and Jordon Stone's Epistle to Joe Turner, which appeared this morning, are the principal features of interest about the Capital to-day. Mr. Brown, of Davidson, and Mr. Trivett, attacked the President bitterly in their speech. Mr. Brown said, that the President's position should not shield him from justifiable censure. Mr. Trivett is the Chairman of the Republican caucus, and it was a source of astonishment to many of his party friends to hear that he laid all the blame for the passage of the salary grab bill at the door of the President. Mr. Williamson, of Franklin, made a sensible speech without the least buncombe. He said that had the President refused to sign the bill, the appropriation for legislative, judicial and war and navy would have been defeated, and it would necessitated an extra session of Congress, and it was known that an extra session of Congress for one week would cost more than what had been paid out of the Treasury as back pay.

This is a dull session, and there is a general dullness about the members.

Col. Bennett, who is the head and front of the whole business on his side, and Mr. Bowman, of Mitchell, the Republican leader, and very justly so too, are about the only live men I can find. I do not know what would become of the members if they did not have there two spirits to depend upon.

The House and Senate have become famous as advertising mediums, all the members are liberally supplied day by day with handbills, cards, posters, etc., etc. To-night the members are to be favored with a lecture on phrenology. I presume it will be duly appreciated. A lecture on Moral Philosophy would no doubt be very acceptable. Judge Bond is a hero to-day, and Dave Jenkins is anything but a martyr. John Rieley stands out pre-eminently a brick in the opinion of members.

Two years ago, I wrote for the New York Tribune sketches of all the most prominent Senators of the Legislature of North Carolina that were then sitting as a Court of Impeachment. I am back in the Chamber once more, and looking over the desks of the "grave and reverend seignors," I am reminded not only of the ungratefulness of republics, but how fast time does fly. Col. Allen, from Duplin, though lately a sufferer, is in his seat, the picture of health. I remembered the "Quaker" Senator, Mr. Worth, of Randolph. I heard him say some good things during the trial, and I think he is authority for the saying, that there were but two things absolutely sure—death and taxes. Mr. Cowles was here then, and he looks about the same. All things seem to have been kind to him, especially his constituents. I looked about for Mr. Chamberlain, but he was away on leave. I wish that he had been here during my sojourn, I wanted to hear him speak. I admire his style of oratory. Mr. Cunningham, who is one of the leading lights of the Senate, is in his seat, and reminds one very much in his personal appearance of Hon. James W. Nye, late United States Senator from Oregon. Senator Murray has not changed in looks that I can discover; but he really looks more "gushing" than he did when the lawyers for the respondent, in the impeachment trial, had him in hand on the witness stand. How things do change! Col. James T. Morehead, the affable Senator from Guilford, arose in his place in the Senate, and asked leave of absence for the Senator from Halifax, (Mr. Eppes.) Now, ten years ago, if a man had prophesied such a thing, the laugh would have been indulged in.—Senator Morehead is immensely popular, and he makes a splendid presiding officer. Col. Ellis, the Senator from Columbus, makes a very valuable acquisition to the Senate. He is a learned, able and courteous gentleman. Major Dunham, who was a manager in the trial of Gov. Holden, is not in his seat, but if he were I almost know that he would be, as he is usually, busy. Senator Harris, of Wake, is regarded as one of the best debaters in the State. Mr. Hyman, of Warren, has been in the Legislature ever since the adoption of the constitution; he was also a member of the Convention. Mr. Eppes, who is a very clever man. Mr. Mabson, the colored Senator from New Hanover, representing the turbulent masses of the Cape Fear city of Wilmington. These four Senators, all colored, are seated contiguous to each other, and I noticed that they are treated alike by all the members of each party. The fact is that there is practically speaking no distinction in the Senate, "personally," and I was pleased to learn from colored Senators that all the courtesy possible was shown them by all their white colleagues, and that, in the Senate, the civil rights bill is in full force, for common consent. Col. Wood Fleming is still a leading feature in the Senate. C. W. Grandy, Jr., who has been the chief the Republican caucus. Mr. Seymour, Mr. Humphey, Dr. Love, Mr. McCabe, Mr. Merrimon, Major James Turner Morehead, a business man, like his illustrious parent, the fiery Dr. Murphy, Mr. Norwood (Rip Van Winkle) the identical man who declared that God wrote "failure" across our Federal Constitution; Mr. Seymour, Mr. Troy, the apostle of Temperance; Mr. Warring, the "irrepressible conflict" of Mecklenburg, Mr. Welch, are the leading men of their respective parties in the Senate, and would do credit to any legislative body extant.

WHICH IS THE BEST!

Which is the best Sewing Machine, is a point on which different Companies differ, each, of course, thinks its own the best, but if the point were to be decided by popularity the Howe Machine would surpass all others. It is a noticeable fact that the Howe Company has

SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND

of their Machines in use although having existed but six years, while the Company which claims to have most in use, has only about twice that number, though having existed for twenty years. Until the year 1866, ELIAS HOWE, JR., the

ORIGINAL INVENTOR OF SEWING MACHINES,

did not manufacture, but was content with receiving the royalty which all Sewing Machine Manufacturers had to pay him for the use of his Patents. A sample of each Machine was sent to Mr. Howe before a license could be obtained. Constant study upon them enabled him to avoid the defects of each and improve upon the excellences of all. This fact explains the

WONDERFUL DEGREE OF PERFECTION

to which Mr. Howe brought his latest pattern of Machine, without which advantages such a result could not have been achieved. These facts should be borne in mind by all who intend to purchase a Sewing Machine. As the purchase of a Machine may be the act of a lifetime with some, care should be taken to PURCHASE ONLY THE LATEST AND BEST.

W. D. Goodrich,

On Market Street Near Third,

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

offers the Howe Machine on such easy terms that no one need longer have an excuse for doing without a Sewing Machine.

☞ No pains or expense spared to give thorough satisfaction to every customer.
